

MULTNOMAH COUNTY BRIDGE TOUR
RELEASE FORM

I. BRIDGE TOUR EXPLANATION:

Welcome to our _____ tour. Multnomah County's Department of Community Services, Transportation Division recognizes the public's interest in the bridges that cross the Willamette River and that a tour of a drawbridge can be an educational and fun experience for young and old alike.

Your safety during your upcoming tour is the highest priority for your tour guide. With this in mind, there may be areas of the bridge you will not be allowed to tour. You will be required to stay with the tour guide during your tour. Please stay with your tour guide.

You will be required to wear adequate foot protection. Proper shoes, which cover the entire foot, must be worn. No high heels or sandals are allowed. You must have on close fitting clothing, as loose clothing may catch on extending objects.

In case of an emergency on site, your tour guide will explain the procedures to follow BEFORE YOUR TOUR STARTS. If you do not understand, please ask.

Throughout your tour, you may notice various "Danger," "Warning," "Caution," or other like warning signs around areas or equipment. Do not remove or cross any warning system. The warning is placed there to protect you, as well as our employees on site.

Scuffling, horseplay, and practical jokes are prohibited. This is an easy way for people to get hurt.

Neither alcohol nor drugs are allowed on a County Bridge Tour. If you appear under the influence, you will not be allowed on the tour. Smoking is not allowed in any County facility.

The tour guide is not an employee of Multnomah County.
