

MULTNOMAH COUNTY BRIDGE TOUR
LIABILITY, PERMISSION, AND MEDICAL RELEASE FORM

I. BRIDGE TOUR EXPLANATION:

Multnomah County's Department of Community Services, Transportation Division recognizes the public's interest in the bridges that cross the Willamette River and that a tour of a drawbridge can be an educational and fun experience for young and old alike.

Your child's safety during the upcoming tour is the highest priority for the tour guide. With this in mind, there may be areas of the bridge your child will not be allowed to tour.

Your child will be required to wear adequate foot protection. Proper shoes, that cover the entire foot, must be worn. No high heels or sandals are allowed.

In case of an emergency on site, the tour guide will explain the procedures to follow BEFORE THE TOUR STARTS. Please instruct your child if he/she does not understand the safety procedures to ask the tour guide to explain.

Please instruct your child that on the tour he/she may notice various "Danger," "Warning," "Caution," or other like warning signs around areas or equipment.

Scuffling, horseplay, and practical jokes are prohibited. This is an easy way for people to get hurt.

The tour guide is not an employee of Multnomah County.
